NOVEL ARBITRATON BETWEEN CHURCH MEMBERS.

Superior Lawyers Charged With Kidnapping a Child—Sale of Large Lots of Potatoes to Starch Factories—Oratorical Contest—Cannon For Stevens Point.

Ripon, Wis., March 19—With the pastor of the church sitting as judge, two of the prominent members acting as attorneys and five others acting as a jury, two Methodist brethren, by mutual agreement, last evening settled a matter that ordinarily would have gone to court.

No audience was present; none was wanted. The prayer meeting room of the Methodist church was the court chamber. James Eckles, one of the church pillars, some time ago bought of Dr. A. Mitchell, another member, a mortgage. The plaintiff claimed some misrepresentation, whether intentional or not, and wanted $200 damages. They agreed to settle it in the way above named, and have done so. The venerable plain iff won his case.

Mr. Fox's oration opened with a description of the power of public opinion in America, and its control of political parties. He declared that American indifference was produced by our national optimism. The oration concluded with the statement that the welfare of the nation lay in the number of its intelligent and cultivated citizens. Mr. Shaw, who was given second place, spoke on "The Decline of Spain." Miss Clara D. Adams, representing the Laurean society, spoke on "Gold Mania."

When the decree was granted it was ordered that the child should be taken to the W. C. T. U. home. Yesterday it was agreed between the parents with the consent of the court that the child should be taken to the parents of the father, but the attorneys anticipated the movement, and had the child taken from the home, whereupon they were arrested for kidnaping.

He has been a member of the democratic state committee and during Cleveland's last administration he served as postmaster of Racine. His company will take charge of the Times about April 1. O. Thomas was arrested at Rice Lake for illegal fishing and two barrels of pickerel were found in his possession.

The Stanley council has passed an ordinance prohibiting the use of slot machines.

HUNTING IS NOT GOOD

Ducks and Geese Fly High and Are Hard to Get

Local hunters who spent yesterday at Lake Koshkonong report ducks as being scarce. During the past three nights the musical sounds of flying geese have been heard, but as yet no good shooting is reported on the prairies. While a great many take pleasure in shooting ducks in the spring, there are sportsmen who will not, as they regard spring shooting a species slaughter. The ducks seen on these waters in the spring are on their way north. They drop down for a brief rest in their semi-annual voyage. They are as a rule too lean to be of value as an article of food and the flesh is not very palatable, because of a fishy taste. When they leave their southern feeding grounds they are fat, but on their way north they lose flesh. Their food enroute consists largely of small fish and a few snails, and the flesh becomes tainted.

PARABLES ON THE CUBAN WAR

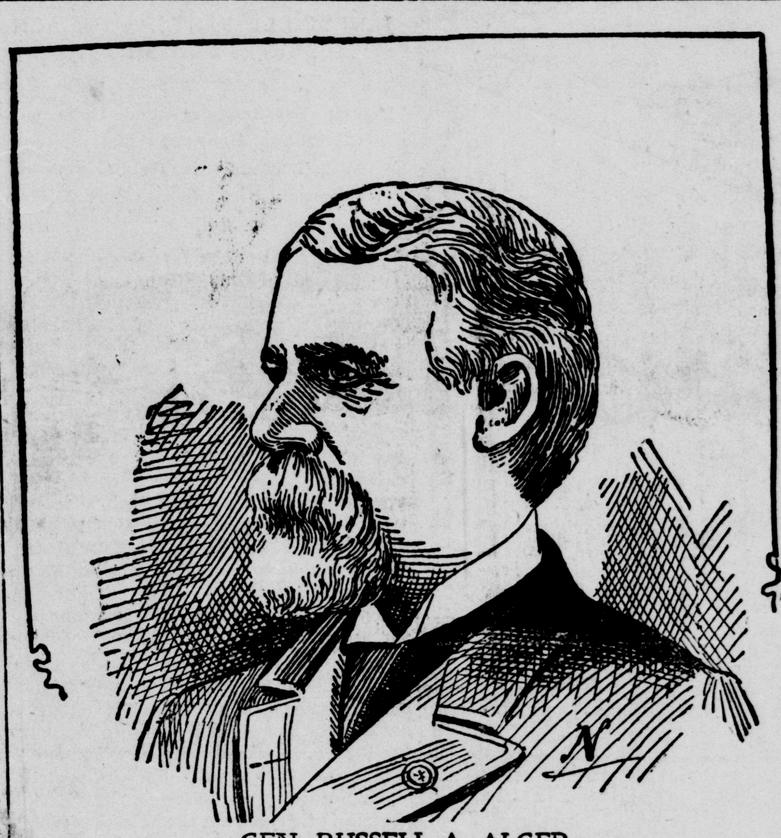

Discourses by Rev. Mr. Hall at Court Street Church.

Some time ago Rev. Mr. Hall, of Court Street M. E. church, gave a series of Pacific Trip Parables, taking the incidents and scenes of his California trip to illustrate spiritual truths. This series was very popular and decidedly helpful. He now proposes using the prominent features in the present crisis of affairs in Cuba to serve the same high purpose. War, arbitration, the emancipation of Cuba—all these things will serve as a basis of parables. Tomorrow evening and one week from Sunday night, perhaps longer, this series will be given. It will doubtless draw. The Life of Christ series will be given in the morning

EGGS ARE NOW VERY CHEAP

They Can Be Had Nowadays Almost for Asking.

Hen fruit has taken another tumble in price, and everyone seems to be living on eggs these days. In several parts of the city today the nine cent sign was stuck in many a bushel basket of eggs. A big demand has grown up on these prices, as the luxury of fresh country eggs in good order is appreciated after the long dearth.

Two Hunters Who Are Well Provided with Sportsmen's Accessories

They are located southeast of this city on the prairies, and besides a complete ammunition and gunning outfit they have along several wild geese that they stake out in order that they may attract the attention of outflying flocks.

It is also quite a noticeable fact that but few hunters in this vicinity ever return with such a variety of game each year as these two gentlemen.

WE ARE NEARER WAR THAN EVER BEFORE

THAT IS THE OPINION OF SECRETARY ALGER

The Aspect of Affairs is Ominous in the Extreme—House Committee Sets Seventeen Millions Apart For War Vessels—President's Policy Determined by Maine Report.

Washington, March 19—[Special]—It is said Secretary Alger has admitted that the United States is closer to war with Spain now than it has been at any other time since the beginning of the present crises.

Washington, March 19—[Special]—Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt says today the administration is not backing down in the Maine affair, and that in a few hours everything will be in readiness to meet any foe which may be encountered.

THE CRISIS NEAR AT HAND

Next Week Will Doubtless Witness Important Events in Cuban Affairs.

Washington, March 19—It is the general opinion among the best informed officials here that intervention in the affairs of Cuba depends upon the degree of responsibility fixed upon Spain by the verdict of the court of inquiry. If the negligence of Spanish officials is demonstrated to have contributed materially to the disaster, the president will probably demand that the war in Cuba be stopped by May 1 or by June 1 at the latest. If Spain refuses, the United States will take possession of Cuban ports, which Spain will doubtless regard as an act of war. If, on the other hand, the report of the court charges only general Spanish negligence, without specific proof, the president will for the present, demand only an indemnity from Spain.

THE PRESIDENT'S POLICY.

It Will Probably Be Determined by the Board of Inquiry's Report.

Washington, March 19—[Special]—The discussion at yesterday's cabinet meeting developed the fact that the president has not decided upon the course he will pursue to end the war in Cuba, but the plan for presenting the Maine board of inquiry's report is mapped out. In case the report shows Spain's liability for the explosion, a statement of the president's demands upon Spain for reparation will be sent to congress. Upon Spain's reply to these demands will probably depend the president's course with regard to other phases of the Cuban question, and will probably answer the question, "Will there be war?"

SETTLEMENT WITHOUT WAR

New Cuban Policy Suggested by Friends of the Administration

Washington, March 19—President McKinley is still firm in his belief that there will be no war, and that not only the explosion of the Maine, but the Cuban question can be settled honorably and peacefully by diplomacy.

The frequent conferences at the state department between the Spanish minister and Assistant Secretary Day have been significant because the advent of Mr. Polo seems to have instituted a new policy toward the United States, and that is to endeavor if possible to avoid a conflict between the two governments and to discuss methods by which this end can be obtained.

The Spanish minister is endeavoring, it is said, by both direct and indirect means to try to induce the president to give the present autonomous government at Havana a fair test. The administration is said to be considering a further trial of autonomy, and that a plan with this end in view, has been suggested to the president by a cabinet official who carries a weight in the official councils. This cabinet officer, during the past week, has drawn up a plan, which has been submitted to the president as well as to prominent members of the government, which may have a bearing on the solution of the Cuban question.

The plan as drafted is to give the Cubans a government of practical independence. Spain is to concede everything the Cubans demand, except the hauling down of her flag. This government is to have a trial for three years, during which time Cuba is to pay Spain $10,000,000 annually as revenue and is to restore the island, its manufactories, industries and general condition to its normal state. At the end of three years an election is to be held to decide whether Cuba is willing to continue under this government or desires her complete independence.

SPANISH GENERAL CAPTURED.

Pando Is Now a Prisoner in the Insurgent Ranks.

Key West, March 19—[Special]—News from Havana this morning says General Pando, commander of the Spanish troops in Cuba, was captured by the insurgents under General Calixto Garcia. It is also reported that the insurgents have landed a force in Porto Rico, and that a general uprising has taken place.

Still Active

Washington, March 19—[Special]—The military and naval authorities have exhausted their energies for the time being in making preparations for an emergency, but there has been no cessation of the efforts to buy ships, ammunition and other war commodities. The purchase of the torpedo boat Destroyer from Brazil is now practically assured.

Weyler's Letter.

Honore Laine, An American correspondent has presented to the state department a copy of the Weyler letter telling of placing mines in Havana harbor and telling what he would have done if a warship entered Havana harbor while he was in command in Cuba. The letter will be placed before the senate committee on foreign relations.

Congress Growing Restive

Washington, March 19—[Special]—Congress is growing restive. The reports in circulation that autonomy may be given another chance or perhaps submitting to arbitration the conflicting reports on the Maine inquiry have aroused indignation.

New Boats For the Navy.

It is said that the House naval committee, in its forthcoming appropriation bill, will provide for the construction of six battleships, six torpedo boat destroyers, and six torpedo boats at a cost of $17,000,000.

WHICH HAS THE GREATEST MIND?

MEN AND WOMEN COMPARED BY ONE OF THE LATTER.

She Makes Out a Good Case Proving the Superiority of Her Own Sex in Many Emergencies Which May Have Been Noticed By the Reader.

EDITOR GAZETTE—We see in the various newspapers about once in so often a piece telling all about the superiority of man, but we never see anything about the braininess of women. We wonder why and we have come to the conclusion that if such articles have ever been written the giant intellect of some editor has suppressed such heresy and consigned said article to the waste basket and the writer to perdition.

It has been argued that a man's brain is heavier than a woman's. This we admit, so also is a cauliflower heavier than a pound cake of maple sugar. In just the proportion that a barrel of sauer kraut is more odorous than a rose, so is man's intellect stronger than a woman's. Maybe a man's brain is larger than a woman's; his foot is bigger, too. There is a shrewdness, a subtlety, a deep cunningness in a woman's nature which is entirely left out of man's inner make-up. She can pick up things much more readily. She can pick up things about another woman that a man would never dream of. We have seen it worked out a thousand times. See how wisely she bows to the inevitable. Superior man has decreed that she shall not vote (afraid she'll get all the fat offices, I suppose). Do she fret and fume, and talk politics, 'til all her hairpins rattle down the back of her neck, and she is on fighting terms with all her neighbors, for "talking back," and rattling the bones of the family's pet skeleton? Well, I guess not, she stays at home on election day and quietly "bides her time" (the stores are all closed anyway,) and "when darkness falls from the wings of night," and with it the superior mind, carefully supported on a furniture dray, then does her greatness show itself. She puts him to bed, and methodically confiscates what loose change is laying around handy!

A man has more advantages than a woman, anyway. A man has sixteen pockets in one suit of clothes! A woman used to have one, and made out first rate, but when that pocket became obtrusive and threatened to become a deformity, she manfully had it amputated (without gas, mind you) and survived the operation.

To be sure she has an artificial pocket, into whose depth goes everything. When she wants her handkerchief, she takes out first, a big bundle, several smaller sisters of big bundles, some insignificant packages, pair of gloves, letters, veil, and some few others, whose names we have forgotton, and when the aforesaid handkerchief is finally brought to light, calmly, deliberately, and dignifiedly, wipes her little nose upon it.

Can you imagine a man without a pocket? We can see him in our mind's eye, lugging around a burlap coffee sack, containing his multitudinous belongings. Let's see—he generally wants to take a few such things as these: cigars in case, pipe, package of tobacco, matches, toothpicks, billbook containing certain fervid business letters not intended for his wife's eye, and other important documents; purse for silver, loose change, jack-knife with cork screw attachment, flask containing medical compounds, button hook, handkerchief, gloves, the last paper, and so on, and so on, and so on; (not being very well acquainted with the contents of a man's pocket, we presume we have omitted some things, whose names the editor will please kindly mention). If he wants to wipe his nose, how he paws around and makes confusion confounded in that bag. What a ripping and tearing, and fumbling and swearing. We can see him finally take the bag by its two corners and dump everything out in a miscellaneous heap on the sidewalk, and pounce triumphantly onto that elusive handkerchief. After the storm the poor fellow puts it away where he once had a pocket.

A woman will adapt herself to any situation. Watch her cross the street once. She will carry a muff, an umbrella, a handbag, a large calendar, a sack of candy and last, literally a train! You wonder if she will get safely into harbor. She will, and not run onto a sandbar either. How would a man act in his wife's shoes, or train, rather? The very thought of him is exhausting. Yet this man's wife can, and probably does, wear his pantaloons with more tact and grace than he himself can. Another assertion which has been borne out time and again. Now, Mr. Editor, we hope we have not hurt your feelings any. You had to know the truth some time and we have broken the news as gently as possible. It is not our fault that we were born a woman.

"MRS. PALMER."

ORGANDIE GOWN, WITH FICHU CORSAGE, FROM HARPER'S BAZAR

A pretty and becoming dress, which may be carried out in any of the light transparent fabrics, has a picturesque little corsage, the full front of which is almost concealed by a graceful fichu, frilled at the edge, and draped over the shoulders de la Marie Antoinette. The frill, headed and bordered by lace insertion, diminishes in width towards the waist line, where the material is slightly shirred in the back and encircled by a black velvet ribbon belt. Bands of velvet, strapping the bodice and caught at the ends by little butterfly bows, attach the fichu in a very fine effective way. The sleeves, gathered into a band of insertion fit the arm the entire length, wrinkling slightly. At the wrist is a ruffle, bordered also with insertion. The muslin, ornamented with insertion and rows of velvet ribbon, forms a most becoming collar.

The flounced skirt, which in various forms and effects appears in great numbers this season, is ornamented with a touch of the popular lattice work at the side, the lace bands reaching from the waist to the hem, counteracting the tendency of the flounce to diminish the height of the wearer. The fulness at the top of the skirt is shirred into a small space. The width of the skirt at the foot is four yards and three-quarters. The gown may be mounted over silk or over one of the colored lawns, which are now so beautifully tinted and very crisp and delicate. These dainty wash fabrics can be made quite separate from any drop skirt, thus affording the means of using more than one color combination, as the bodice may also be worth over a separate lining. The sleeves may be lined or not, as preferred. The waist is fastened under the fichu at the left side. The proper cut of the costume can be obtained from the cut paper patterns furnished by Harper's Bazar, where it appears.

Approximate quantity of material for medium size—10½ yards of muslin 32 inches wide; 16 yards of insertion; 3½ yards of ribbon velvet.

A DOG WAS RESPONSIBLE

Third Ward Sidewalks Destroyed by a Mysterious Agency.

Alderman H. S. Gilkey has discovered a dog in the Third ward whose only delight seems to be in tearing up sidewalks. Of late several complaints have been made by Racine street residents, who said some one was destroying sidewalks in that neighborhood. A man was detailed to watch and to his surprise he found that a middle sized black cur belonging to a Third ward family was to blame.

Racine street borders on Forest Park and myriads of wild rabbits live in that section. The dog delights in hunting rabbits, and as soon as one would dart across the road the dog would be close after him and then both would disappear beneath a sidewalk. The rabbit got away nine times out of ten, but the dog in his eager search would raise havoc with the sidewalk from one end to the other. The dog is now chained at home and the rabbits are bolder than ever.

NEWS FROM THE MORNING PAPERS

PUBLIC WILL HAVE TO WAIT.

Document May Not Be Given Out for a Week—Testimony and Conclusions Make 150,000 Words—Senator Gallinger Talks of Cuba.

Key West, Fla., March 19.—Captain Sampson when seen last night said: "The court has not yet finished its labors, and it is not yet possible to tell when we shall have finished. This board will not announce the end of its deliberations. That announcement must necessarily come from Washington. I might surmise when the report will be ready, but something not now foreseen might intervene to postpone the date, and therefore rather than set a date and have the public disappointed I will say nothing."

The statement that Lieutenant Holman has taken information to Washington for the president is correct. It is possible that from the circumstance arose the rumor that the report would be in the president's hands by Saturday.

Lieutenant Holman may inform the president briefly what the report will conclude about the Maine disaster.

New York, March 19.—A special from Key West says: "The officials here say it is untrue that the report of the Maine court of inquiry is finished. They insist that it will not be ready for some days yet. It contains 150,000 words, with the conclusions. It is said here that the evidence will not be in Washington for a week yet, and that when it is sent north Judge Advocate Marix will take it."

TERRIBLE CONDITION OF CUBA.

Senator Gallinger Says the Picture Cannot Be Made Too Hideous.

Washington, March 19. — Senator Gallinger was at the capitol Friday for the first time since his return from Cuba. When requested to make a statement as to his observations on the conditions of affairs on that island he responded:

"You can sign my name to any picture you may draw of utter wretchedness and destitution in that country. The condition of affairs, so far as I had opportunity to observe it, and I was only in Havana and Matanzas, is simply indescribable. I had not expected to find it half as bad as it is, and I do not believe any one who simply reads the accounts and does not see for himself can form an adequate idea of the situation. The reconcentrados are wedged into all available places in the cities and are perishing by the thousand for want of the commonest necessaries of life. The information obtainable leads to the conclusion that there have been beyond a doubt 400,000 deaths as a result of Spain's brutal policy, and the tragedy goes on from day to day."

Think the Situation Worse.

London, March 19.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times says: "The increasing probability of a Hispano-American conflict engrosses public attention. Spain's latest representations at Washington are regarded as an indication that the situation has grown worse."

The Fremdenblatt, expressing this opinion, finds it conceivable that Spain should seek to prevent America perfecting her armaments by a pretense of desiring peace.

To Crush the Cubans.

Madrid, March 19.—The government is exceedingly hopeful of early results from Gen. Blanco's plan of operations in the east of the island. It is asserted that, the central and western provinces having been pacified, Gen. Blanco is about starting on extensive operations with eighty battalions and large volunteer forces to destroy the insurgent power in eastern Cuba.

Long Gains His Point.

Washington, March 19.—Chairman Boutelle of the house committee on naval affairs and Secretary Long have settled their differences in regard to the navy personnel bill. The feeling of the committee was too strongly against Mr. Boutelle, and he has yielded and will permit the bill to be reported to the house as soon as the navy appropriation bill is out of the way.

Flotilla Is Going to Cuba.

Havana, March 19.—According to a dispatch from Madrid, the Spanish government denies that negotiations are pending between Spain and the United States for the withdrawal of the American squadron from the vicinity of Cuba. The government says also that the torpedo-boat flotilla's trip to the Antilles has not been suspended.

Spain's Report Held Back.

Madrid, March 19.—It is understood that the report of the Spanish naval court upon the Maine disaster will be delayed until the American report is published.

The tone of the press is more hopeful, but financial circles are still uneasy.

Gun Cotton Didn't Explode.

Havana, March 19.—Among Friday's discoveries in the Maine is a startling one made by Gunner Morgan. He found a lot of gun cotton in the crystal tubes in which it was kept. The tubes were intact, and the gun cotton absolutely dry. It was the highest explosive on board the battleship, and it is intact.

No More Ships Bought.

Washington, March 19.—Beyond the Amazonas, her sister ship Abreuall and the Mayflower, no purchases of ships have been made by the navy department. A number of fleet steam yachts owned in the United States are being offered to the department and it is probable that some of these will be purchased.

Two More Bodies Recovered.

Havana, March 19.—Two more bodies in an advanced state of decomposition were recovered Friday from the wreck of the Maine. One may possibly be identified by peculiar tattoo marks on the arm—two hearts pierced with daggers and surmounted with a clover leaf tinged with red.

Madrid Feeler Via Havana.

Havana, March 19.—Cable dispatches received here say that a rumor prevails in Madrid to the effect that in case of a conflict with the United States Spain would be willing to submit to arbitration by the queen of England and the emperor of Austria.

Monitors Receive Orders.

San Diego, Cal., March 19.—The monitors Monadnock and Monterey have received orders to proceed to San Francisco. They will leave here next Monday, and will probably arrive Thursday morning.

Drilling Hours Increased.

San Antonio, Texas, March 19.—The commanders of all the military posts in Texas have given orders increasing the drilling hours of the troops of their respective garrisons. The order is considered significant in military circles.

Says United States Won't Fight.

Havana, March 19.—El Pais says that the United States is a nation of money-making people, and will not, therefore, for any cause whatever, engage in a foreign war.

Not Requested to Arbitrate.

London, March 19.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Brussels says no approach has been made to Belgium for arbitrating the Maine affair.

Spanish Ships Arrive One by One.

Havana, March 19.—The Spanish gunboat Antonio Lopez arrived here Friday.

Postoffice Bill Is Amended.

Washington, March 19.—After agreeing to the conference report on the agricultural bill, the house Friday, in committee of the whole, resumed consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill. Two hours were spent in discussing the appropriation of $225,000 for the pneumatic tube service, which was retained in the bill by a vote of 65 to 108. All amendments to cut down or limit the expenditure of the appropriation of $30,500,000 for railroad transportation were futile. An amendment was agreed to, making it a misdemeanor punishable by heavy penalties to "pad" the mails during the quadrennial weighing. At 5 o'clock the house adjourned, not having finished the bill.

To Hear the Opposition.

Washington, March 19.—Chairman Bromwell of the sub-committee of the house postoffice committee, which is considering the postal savings depository bills, has set next Thursday morning as the time when the opponents to the measure will be given a hearing. The hearings will be held at the committee room of the committee on postoffices and postroads. Mr. Bromwell says that if those opposing the bill cannot attend the hearing it is desirable that they communicate their views in writing to him.

To Join the Thread Trust.

Hartford, Conn., March 19.—J. E. Lawton of Manchester, England, vice-chairman of the English sewing-cotton corporation, and John R. Dos Passos, the New York counsel of the American Thread company, have completed the final arrangements for the transfer of the Willimantic Thread company's plant to the trust. Lawton furnished $3,600,000 and Dos Passos $2,400,000, $6,000,000 being the sum required to complete the deal.

MAY PROLONG THE TERM.

Senate Committee Favors a Change in Inaugural Day Date.

Washington, March 19.—The senate committee on privileges and elections has authorized a favorable report on the amendment to the constitution of the United States introduced by Senator Hoar, changing the time of year for the expiration of the term of the president, vice-president, senators and representatives in congress from March 4 until the last Wednesday in April.

The change is made to take effect in 1901, and if the amendment should be accepted by congress and be ratified by a sufficient number of states it would have the effect of extending the term of President McKinley and Vice-president Hobart for almost two months.

The object of the amendment is to avoid the harsh weather which sometimes interferes with inauguration ceremonies when held on the 4th of March.

JAPAN OVERAWES RUSSIA.

Makes a Show of Strength and Saves Korea—The Times' Comment.

London, March 19.—The Times publishes a military article showing that Russia's strength on the Manchurian frontier is considerably less than is generally supposed, and is certainly "inadequate to meet a well-equipped adversary."

Commenting editorially upon the conclusions drawn by its contributor, the Times says: "Japan has evidently taken measure of Russia's strength and the result is seen in Russia's withdrawal from Korea. Japan has made no fuss, but she has acted; and she has acted so quietly that her action stands revealed for the first time by its results. It forms an admirable object lesson for the British government."

Michigan Banks Prosperous.

Lansing, Mich., March 19.—An excellent showing for the 179 state banks of Michigan is made by the consolidated bank report, issued Friday, giving their condition at the close of business Feb. 18, compared with the report of Dec. 15. The savings deposits show an increase of $2,850,000 and commercial deposits of $1,000,000; the loans and discounts, stocks, bonds and mortgages have increased $3,500,000, and the reserve fund has increased over $1,000,000 in two months.

New Baptist University.

Richmond, Va., March 19.—The home mission board, representing the Baptists of the north, have just voted to begin at once the erection of the buildings of the new Virginia Union university, to be located on a beautiful campus of about forty acres in the suburbs of this city and to cost about $100,000. One of the buildings, the library and chapel, which will cost $17,000, is to be erected with money furnished by the colored Baptists of Virginia.

CURED BY

AFTER DOCTORS FAILED.

Here you have the evidence right at home from one of your own citizens.

"I wish I had a voice which could be heard throughout the length and breadth of this continent, that I might speak to the army of sufferers who are being tortured by the disease with which I have been afflicted for years. I have been an intense sufferer for several years and everyone who has had that disease knows the extreme agony I must have endured. Itching burning, scratching, digging and loss of sleep has been my deplorable condition. Four of our best physicians had exhausted their energies on my case, without even giving me relief. Oh, what a godsend to me when one of our druggists called my attention to that wonderful remedy, Septicide, and assured me that it would do what skilful hands had completely failed in doing. Suffice it to say that two bottles cured me completely, so there is no return of this dreadful complaint. N. FARNHAM.

EASY COME, EASY GO.

Money won by gaming almost invariably takes to itself wings and flies away. Sometimes gamblers seem to prosper, and perhaps they do for a time, but in the end they find that their ill-gotten gains are scattered to the four winds of heaven and they themselves disappear from public view forever.

A few months ago Tom Wicks, once the prince of gamblers in Wisconsin, died in a Chicago hospital dependent upon charity for the few comforts that soothed his dying days. For many years he was the recognized chief of the gambling fraternity in the state. He conducted gaming resorts in Milwaukee the year round and in Madison during the sessions of the legislature. Money was plentiful with him at all times and he spent it lavishly. Finally when old age was creeping upon him, fortune changed its front and frowned instead of smiling upon him. He was deserted by those who had once been his friends, and died as stated, a dependant upon public charity.

Another instance of the uncertainty of fortune won at cards has just come to notice at Chicago. George V. Hankins was for thirty years the most conspicuous member of the fraternity in that city and the sole or partial owner of half a dozen resorts that received a large patronage. He was also the financial backer of the Garfield park race track, made odorous by many questionable or criminal occurrences connected with racing events transpiring there. Two or three years ago he retired from active business with a fortune estimated at more than a million dollars. Reverses have come upon him thick and fast, and the daily newspapers of Chicago have just announced the sale under foreclosure of his last property holding in that city—a house and lot mortgaged for more than it will bring at public auction. Hankins has left Chicago for the state of Washington, where he has opened a gambling house in one of the miners' outfitting towns, hoping that there he may be able to regain a portion of his lost money by preying upon those going to or coming from the Klondike gold diggings. Perhaps he will succeed. It is more likely, however, that the down-hill impetus he has recently gained at Chicago cannot be overcome until he has reached the bottom.

Gambling may pay for a time, and gamblers may live upon the fat of the land for a season, but it is an inexorable law of their existence that sooner or later that which they call "luck" will change and leave them stranded upon the shoals of the troubled sea of life, the prey of adversity's waves, the buffet of poverty's stormy winds.

MILLS KICKS FREE COINAGE.

Senator Mills, of Texas, was a free silver man, but when he saw the error of his ways, he promptly admitted that he was mistaken. He summed up the whole situation in a few words when he said:

If we can open our mints to the unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 1 ounce of gold for 16 ounces of silver, when in every market in the world 1 ounce of gold is worth 30 ounces of silver, we will soon part with all gold and have all silver. But that is not bimetallism. That is monometalism.

Waco, Texas, business men have pledged $25,000 to the government, without interest, in case of war. All the subscribers, with one exception—a man too young to serve in the war of the rebellion—was a confederate veteran.

The official report of the testing of the electric lights has not yet been filed. In the mean time evasions of the question at issue are superfluous.

A NEW TOBACCO WAREHOUSE

E. M. Calkins Will Occupy the Old Buckle Factory.

E. M. Calkins, the well known leaf tobacco buyer, has rented the entire main floor of the Woodruff buckle factory, with the exception of the small space at the south end at present occupied by an office. The room will be used for storing leaf tobacco, and a more ideal place would be hard to find. Since the fire at the factory, the building has been thoroughly renovated, and is now in the best of condition.

An Argument.

"No, sir," said the clergyman, who was being criticised for not treating current topics with more emphasis, "I decline to become an advocate on any side of the question you suggest."

"But a number of people expect it of you."

"My dear sir, my mission is to help prepare people for life in the next world, is it not?"

"Certainly."

"Well, you cannot possibly convince me that there is any politics in Heaven."—Washington Star.

How She Figured It.

A young lady of 18 was engaged to be married to a gentleman of 36. Her mother, having noticed her low spirits for some time, inquired the reason.

"Oh, dear mamma," replied the young lady, "I was thinking about my husband being twice my age."

"That's very true; but he's only 36."

"He's only 36 now, dear mamma; but when I'm 60—"

"Well?"

"Oh, dear! why, then he'll be 120!"—Tit-Bits.

As It Will Be.

"Is this case to be tried by a jury of women?" asked the plaintiff in a whisper.

"It is," replied his lawyer.

"Can't we fix it any other way?"

"We cannot."

"Then we might as well throw up our hands now. The defendant is younger and handsomer than I am."—Chicago Post.

HAS GONE TO THE KLONDIKE

Homer Humphrey Has Taken His Departure for Alaska.

Homer Humphrey, a former well known Janesville boy, who, while a resident of this city, lived with his mother on the property which is now known as Riverview Park, has left for the Klondike gold fields to seek his fortune. Before leaving he surrendered a job in Chicago that was paying him $1,200 a year, and in spite of the advice of a host of friends, decided to make the trip. Mr. Humphrey is well known in the Bower City, and his many friends will wish him the best that the land of ice and snow affords.

A handsome enlarged photographic portrait of Alfred Dewey now adorns the walls of the hall of Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. The picture was presented to the lodge by Mr. Dewey, who is now the only living charter member, and that members fully appriciate the gift is putting it mild.

PRICES ARE VERY UNCERTAIN

Live Stock Dealings Hampered By the Variable Market.

Local live stock speculators have been on the anxious seat during the past week, and all on account of the different prices that have prevailed on the Chicago market. At the local stock yards several car load shipments have been held this week in the hope that market prices would brighten up. On Thursday shipments were made, and local dealers now claim they are several dollars out as the result of their investment.

LOCAL LEAF BUYERS CLOSE LARGE DEALS

MAKE SEVERAL HEAVY PURCHASES IN VERNON COUNTY

Frank S. Baines Closes a Deal That It Will Require Seventeen Cars to Transport—Samuel Grundy Also Purchases Eight Cars—Goods Coming Here.

Local leaf tobacco dealers have invaded Vernon county during the past few days, and have purchased in wholesale lots. Among the heaviest of buyers has been Frank L. Baines, who made the purchase of seventeen cars of leaf, which will be shipped direct here in the bundle. At the local warehouse the tobacco will be handled and picked, so that it means work for many hands for the next few weeks.

The shipment, when packed, will make between seven hundred and eight hundred cases.

Samuel Grundy, of this section, has been losing no time in Verkon county of late and his late purchases will amount to eight cars.

From early morning till late this afternoon tobacco in the bundle has been coming to town from all sections of the county, and it is estimated that fully a hundred loads were received at the local warehouses today.

ROOF FELL IN

Man Had a Fortune in His Hill but Didn't Take It

A farmer in Kentucky had a six foot vein of coal cropping out of a hill on his farm and used to take out a little for his own use, but when he tunneled in a short ways it caved and he abandoned it because "the roof wouldn't stay up."

The man who bought the farm, cleaned out the mouth of the tunnel, put strong timbers in so that the roof remained in place and he took out over $200,000 worth of coal.

The first owner had a good and valuable thing in his hand but failed to get the good because of his inattention and lack of application. The good things of this world come to those who use their reason and common sense to develop what they have. Many a man who needs the strong nourishment contained in Postum Food Coffee, has been drivon from it because the Postum was served weak and unpalatable, and he quickly concluded it was the fault of the Postum.

In families where it is allowed to continue boiling full fifteen minutes, not after it has been placed on the stove, but after actual boiling commences, it will be found a black, rich beverage with a ripe coffee like flavor, and a powerful food for adult or child.

A Matter For Deliberation.

Editor Gazette—In view of the fact that about $25,000 are annually spent upon the streets of this city and results are so unsatisfactory, is it not high time that the tax payers of our city place this large sum in the hands of a street commissioner, who, by actual experience is qualified to perform the duties of that office? Our fifteen years' experience in road and bridge building for that exacting corporation, the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, well known for the permanence and general excellence of its roadbeds, eminently befits J. H. Watson for the office of street commissioner. It behooves the voters of Janesville to give the matter reflection before making their decision at the caucus next week.

CUBA WILL BE INDEPENDENT.

Great Leader of Conservatives in Europe Says Spain Is Bankrupt and Practically Friendless—Denounces the Cruelties in Cuba.

New York, March 19.—A cable dispatch from Friedrichsruhe to a New York newspaper says:

Prince Bismarck Friday gave an audience to an American newspaper man. The prince's utterance on the Cuban question is, without doubt, the most important that has been made in Europe since the war for the independence for the island began.

Bismarck is the very citadel of conservatism in Europe. His voice is the voice of the sober second thought of the old world.

"McKinley has shown superior statesmanship by calming public excitement," he said. "The exaltation of the American mind concerning Cuba is not quite understood in Europe, yet it is true that there are Spanish jingoes as well as Yankee jingoes.

"The Spanish standpoint is medieval. Spain's atrocities in Cuba, her misgovernment at home, and her treatment of captives in Montjuich fortress are fresh in our recollection. Spain is today on the very verge of bankruptcy. She cannot rely upon any support, except, possibly from France or Italy.

"When the German emperor spoke of the Cuban question recently he did not refer to a war between the United States and Spain, but to a settlement in money. We Germans condemn war as impractical. We sympathize with the grievances of the Cuban insurgents.

"I prophesy that Cuba will soon become an independent republic by diplomatic means."

Bismarck has been confined indoors for twelve weeks. He is somewhat pale, but his eyes were bright and his spirit high. He smoked a long pipe. A delegation of old Schleswig-Holsteiners called on the prince Friday, and he congratulated them on the fiftieth anniversary of their separation from Denmark and the abounding prosperity under the beneficent rule of the fatherland.

Every man fells more respect for himself when he acts the man in resenting some foul asperson cast upon him or inflicts summary punishment on the thug or hoodlum who endeavors to do him bodily harm, why should he not then in the same spirit of manhood refuse to permit any form of abuse, strangle and spoil the human body by his best friend, the stomach? He works contrary to those rules the moment he takes a drink of adulterated, compounded or cheap mean whisky. Don't touch such whisky. Time was when a dealer could claim anything for his whisky, and you had no means of getting at the truth, fortunately for you things have changed, Congress at its last session enacted a law for your protection against such frauds, you can now purchase whisky bottled in bond. Green River Whiskey is that whisky. It is bottled under the supervision of the U. S. Government, the stamp of the nation covers every bottle of it, thus attesting its genuineness, age, proof and purity. Be sure you get Green River Whiskey. Don't take any other that some dealers will tell you is just as good, anything he offers you he will tell you is just as good as you can get anywhere, he has told you that before. It is just such fellows who made the new law a necessity to protect the distiller and save you from being duped, therefore, don't touch the stuff. Green River Whiskey is the best, take no oteer. A Piercing Pain

In the Left Side, Under the Right Shoulder Blade or Through the Heart, Shortness of Breath and Smothering Spells Indicate Heart Troubles. Cure them With

DR. MILES' NEW HEART CURE,

The Great Heart and Blood Tonic.

Not unfrequently the symptoms of a weak or diseased heart are obscure and misleading. Overwork or heart strain produces more or less irritation, showing itself in shortness of breath, pain in the heart, or some of the numerous nerves of the chest and abdomen. In most cases the pain is not in the heart, but appears in the bowels, especially in the left side, at the edge of the ribs, in the back, in the left shoulder and down the left arm. In bad cases of neuralgia of the heart the pain will shoot into the head, chest and both arms. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure strengthens and controls the heart action while it purifies the blood, stimulates the digestion and builds up the entire system.

Mrs. M. N. Ives, Poynette, Wis., says: "I suffered with severe heart trouble fifteen years. Pains passed at regular intervals from the heart to the shoulders, sharp as if pierced by a knife. Shortness of breath and smothering spells frequently compelled carrying me in a rocking chair to the door for air I could not lie in bed except when propped up, and my limbs were so swollen I could scarcely move them. For years I doctored with the best physicians in the state, but received but little help. I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure the 4th of July, 1894, and continued its use until the following spring. Since then I have been in perfect health. I do the hardest work without fatigue and could not feel better I don't believe there is such another remedy as Dr. Miles Heart New Cure on earth."

A weak heart affects all other organs of the body by depriving them of nourishment. It is frequently accompanied with nervousness, irritability, unsound sleep. Dr Miles' Heart Cure is the most reliable medicine known for such troubles and will positively give relief when others fail.

A POSITIVE GUARANTEE.

You run no risk in giving Dr. Miles' Heart Oure a trial. If the first bottle fails to benefit you, take the empty bottle to your druggist and get your money back. All druggists are authorized to sell the first bottle with that understanding. Book on the heart and nerves sent free. Address,

HEAVY TREASURY RECEIPTS.

Merchandise Exports Show a Large Increase—Sixteen Per Cent Over Last Year—Failures for the Week Show a Slight Decrease.

New York, March 19.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

"Neither peace nor war reports have changed the onward current of business. Orders for more than $25,500,000 gold from Europe have blocked any drift toward stringency in rates for money, and treasury receipts of about $1,100,000 a day have kept in check any question about the currency, while exports of products have continued at a rate considerably increased, and the demand for products of the great industries shows steady expansion. Prompt action by the senate and house has removed all fear of embarrassment through conflicting purposes at Washington. The government is making ready without any waste of time, while frankly assuring everybody that it looks for a peaceful settlement and hopes that its preparations may prove unnecessary.

"The backbone of the situation is the excess of merchandise exports, more than $41,000,000 in February, with an increase of $2,200,000 in miscellaneous products, $2,100,000 in provisions, $4,500,000 in cotton and $7,000,000 in breadstuffs compared with last year, and $15,100,000 in all products. In two weeks of March exports have been 16 per cent larger than last year, and imports have gained but 8.7 per cent. The outgo of cotton surpasses all expectations. Wool shows no change in quotations, though eastern markets are extremely dull, and the indifference of manufacturers has made transactions only 2,062,300 pounds, against 10,891,900 for the corresponding week last year. Little encouragement appears in the market for cotton goods.

"Bessemer pig and gray forge are both slightly stronger at Pittsburg, the proposed combination of valley furnaces helping, but pig is not changed in price elsewhere, nor are finished products at any point, excepting wire nails.

"Failures for the week have been 208 in the United States, against 216 last year and 27 in Canada, against 50 last year."

FOR BIENNIAL ELECTIONS.

Iowa House Agrees to the Resolution Passed by the Senate.

Des Moines, March 19.—The Titus joint resolution providing for submitting a constitutional amendment for biennial elections passed the house Friday. It has already passed the senate. If it is adopted by the next legislature in 1900 the amendment will be submitted to the people that year, and if adopted the legislature will meet in extra session in 1901 to make the necessary preparations, and thereafter elections will be held only in even-numbered years. Only four votes, all democrats, were cast against the resolution in the house.

The attempt to secure the passage of a law compelling private banks to undergo examination and make reports the same as state and savings banks was killed in the house after a sharp discussion.

The senate passed the bills to reduce the interest on state warrants from 6 to 5 per cent and to allow the executive council to sell warrants in anticipation of revenues, but not to exceed them.

Wire Trust Formed.

Chicago, March 19.—The American Steel and Wire company springs into life fully equipped and in possession of 75 per cent. of the means of turning out the wire product of the United States. With a capital stock of $24,000,000 and fourteen factories to operate, the new company feels that it will be able, according to a statement given out, to "do away with disastrous competition, make savings in the various economies of manufacture, freight rates, cross shipments of goods and so forth." The statement further declares that the combine does not necessarily mean an advance in price.

Change Their Plans.

Springfield, Ill., March 19.—The special committee appointed by the democratic and republican central committees to select a suitable building in which to hold the coming state conventions has reversed its former decision and as a result the conventions will be held in the exposition building on the state fair grounds.

Indiana Farms Under Water.

Vincennes, Ind., March 19.—The Wabash and White rivers are on their regular spring rampage, and the low lands are completely overflowed with water. Thousands of acres of growing wheat is submerged, and the damage will be heavy. There was a bright outlook for a big wheat crop in the bottoms, but the flood has changed all this.

For a Monumeot to Lincoln.

Washington, March 19.—A memorial from the Illinois legislature asking for the erection of a monument to Abraham Lincoln was introduced in the house Friday by Congressman Belknap. Also a petition from the people of Illinois asking for the establishment of a national park at Vicksburg, Miss.

Kanawha Miners to Strike.

Staunton, Va., March 19.—A strike in the Kanawha coal district has just been ordered, to take effect in April. Some time ago a 10 per cent. advance in wages was demanded by the miners, which the operators refused.

May Be Brought to Illinois.

Wichita, Kas., March 19.—J. C. Creele, who is wanted in nearly a dozen states, has been indicted by the federal grand jury for impersonating a pension inspector and obtaining private department information. Creele is in jail at Topeka, near where he was traced ten days ago.

A Pill for the Ill.

"They'll do you good," a physician said in giving some pills to his patient, a woman who had suffered for months from diseases which baffled skillful treatment. His words proved true. The woman rejoices.

The hurry and bustle of the housewife is extremely wearing upon the delicate organism of womanhood.

Her intense earnestness in whatever she undertakes, tempts her constantly to go beyond her strength.

Mrs. L. E. Browning, of Pueblo, Colo., was one who did this.

"Eight years ago," said she, "my husband died and I was left with three children to care for and educate.

"The burdens of life fell heavily upon me, but I determined to make the best of it.

"I succeeded in my undertakings for a livelihood, but in doing so overtaxed myself, and undermined my health.

"I was very ill about two years ago with blood poisoning, caused by an abscess that had not received proper treatment.

"The disease settled in my throat for a time, causing intense agony.

"Then inflammatory rheumatism set in. For four months and a half I was a prisoner in my room, most of the time confined to my bed.

"My hands were swollen so that I could not feed myself, and the swelling in my feet and ankles would have made walking impossible if I had been strong enough.

"One day, after considerable treatment, my physician brought me a box of pills.

'You need a tonic,' he said, 'and something that will act at once, and this is the best medicine for that purpose.'

"Pills!" I exclaimed in surprise as he opened the box and showed them.

'Yes,' he replied, 'these are Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, but you need not be alarmed, they are not physic, and my word for it, they'll do you good.'

"Before I had been taking them a week I noticed a great improvement in my condition. Soon my rheumatism was gone.

"I grew stronger each day and now am in the best of health.

"I consider Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, the best tonic.

"A friend not long ago was telling me of her mother who is at a critical period in her life.

"She was subject to terrible fainting spells, and the entire family would work over her.

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have not only stopped the fainting spells, but given her so much strength that she is able to take up life's duties again."

To more highly endorse her words, Mrs. Browning made affidavit before George W. Gill, Notary Public.

All diseases arising from an impoverished condition of the blood, and most all come from that, are cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

They act directly upon the blood. Building it up with lacking constituents; it becomes rich and red, the various organs are nourished and stimulated to activity in performing their functions, and thus disease is eliminated from the system.

These pills are sold everywhere, the sale being enormous.

STAMPEDE FROM DAWSON.

Rush of Prospectors Predicted When Yukon Navigation Opens.

Tacoma, March 19.—H. C. Pettit of Snohomish, who returned from Alaska on the city of Seattle, says that next June and July will witness a stampede from Dawson that will be equaled only by the present rush of gold seekers to the Klondike. Up to Feb. 8, when Pettit left, there had been about 1,500 applications for passage south. Before that number was reached the accommodations of all the first boats had been sold and no more applications would be received. When bookings open for the second boats there will be another rush. Practically every one of the 1,500 at Dawson is anxious to get out early and will bring gold, many in large quantities.

May Be Methodist Mission.

New York, March 19.—The officials at the Methodist board of foreign missions have received no information about the attack on the American medical mission in the suburbs of Ching-King-Fu, on the Yang-tse-Kiang, by a native mob. The officers of the board believe, however, the dispatch refers to their mission at that place.

The native population did not take kindly to the efforts of the physician to relieve their sufferings. Previously they had attacked the Roman Catholic missionaries. Threats were made when the Methodists sent physicians there that they would not be allowed to practice. The natives declared they did not want any attendance from foreigners.

London Says It Isn't So.

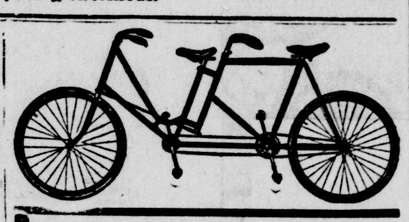

London, March 19.—The government of Great Britain is surprised at the report of the senate committee on foreign affairs, which, after presenting a joint resolution for the annexation of Hawaii, set forth that Great Britain was plotting for the absorption of Hawaii. A high official of the British foreign office says: "As a matter of fact, nothing is further from Great Britain's intentions than to interfere in any way with the existing regime in Hawaii. No steps in that direction were ever contemplated. On the contrary, her majesty's government has recognized that the United States has the foremost interests in Hawaii, and that it is natural and inevitable that Hawaii should be under American influence."

Venezuela Boundary Case.

Washington, March 19.—By arrangement between the parties, Sir Julian Pauncefote, for Great Britain, and Senor Andrade for Venezuela, the cases relative to the boundary arbitration prepared by counsel on either side have been exchanged. The documents will be forwarded to their respective governments by the ambassador and minister to serve as the basis for the counter cases to be exchanged later on, and to prepare the way for the arbitration to meet in Paris next fall.

British Columbia Mineral Output.

Victoria, B. C., March 19.—The annual report of the department of mines was presented to the legislature yesterday. It shows that the total output of minerals, including coal, in 1897, was valued at $10,435,288, an increase of 40 per cent over the previous year's yield. The gold value was $2,696,000; silver, $3,272,000; lead, $1,390,517; coal, $2,642,261. West Kootenay produced minerals to the value of $6.765,000.
